

Sing Praise to the God of Love

Commissioned by the Greater Bridgeport Chapter of The American Guild of Organists for their 50th Anniversary year, 1997-1998.

Text: K. Bryan Kirk, 1997

Tune: Greater Bridgeport AGO

$\text{♩} = 92$, Broadly, not fast

K. Bryan Kirk, 1997

1. Sing praise to the God of love, let ev-'ry-one re-joice, Sing 2. We make all our mu-sic to en-rich and to re-sound, We
3. Our faith and our his-to-ry have led us all a-bout, Our 4. Let all peo-ple hear the song we joy-ful-ly do sing, Let praise with your soul and heart and with a joy-ous voice. We make all our in-stru-ments to play and send the sound. The work and our min-is-try have spread it all through-out. The all crea-tures liv-ing join in to re-sound and ring. A cel-e-brate this day, We sing with one ac-cord, We sing-ing of each choir, The psalm and hymn are great, With great-ness of the past, the chal-lenge of to-day, Look mel-o-dy sub-lime, a har-mo-ny re-fined, With sing this song to ev - 'ry - one, We make the mu - sic soar. Sing pipe and tune to lead us through the mu - sic we cre - ate. We for - ward with ex - cite - ment as mu - si - cians meet al - way. Our voice and or - gan blend - ing, lead - ing to in - spire our mind. Sing praise from this place to reach be - yond the wall that stand, Sing write and com - pose a - new the mu - sic that we may, We hope and our gen - er - a - tion call us to u - nite, Our out all a - round the world of mu - sic strong and sure, Sing praise to the world a - round, to each and ev - 'ry land.

teach and dis - cov - er how to learn and share to - day.
 strength and our fu - ture can be rich and ve - ry bright. praise near and far be - yond, Sing mu - sic to en - dure.

Music and Text Copyright 1997 by K. Bryan Kirk, Darien, Connecticut.